ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Ana Marina Cabrera-Lara, is hereby placed on probation on Counts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the Six-Count First Superseding Information for a term of 24 months under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04, including the conditions of probation set forth in Section III of Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
4. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $600, which is due immediately.

USA vs. Ana Marina Cabrera Lara [68905-112]

Docket No.: CR 15-392-JFW

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $360,995.76 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim	Amount
Medicare	$360,995.76

Restitution shall be due during the period of probation. The defendant shall make nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross income, but not less than $50, whichever is greater, during the term of probation. Payments shall begin 90 days after the commencement of probation. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with Second Amended General Order No. 20-04.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that she is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Defendant informed of right to appeal.

On the Government's Motion, the Court orders the Underlying Information filed on July 17, 2015 dismissed.

Bond is exonerated and defendant's passport shall be returned to the defendant.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
